IN MEMORIAM

BISHOP WILLIAM FITZJAMES OLDHAM

William Fitzjames, son of James and Mary E. Burling Oldham, was born in Bangalore, India, December 15, 1854. His father was an officer in the English Army, having worked his way up from the ranks. His mother died when he was just a little lad, but, he said, "My father married again and the new mother became a real mother to me."

He was educated in Madras Christian College and began work as a surveyor and engineer for the British Government. In 1875, William Taylor visited India with his evangelistic party. Young Oldham heard Daniel O. Fox in a street meeting, sought out the preacher and was converted soon after. In a short time he left his work as an engineer and joined with Taylor and Thoburn in their evangelistic work. He came to America in 1879 and spent four years at Allegheny College and Boston University. He joined the Michigan Conference in 1883, and transferred at once to India. Conference had adjourned when the Oldhams reached India. Asking Bishop Thoburn about their appointment, they were told they had no appointment in India, but that they were to open new work at Singapore, the crossroads of the Southeast, the hottest city in the world. Here they founded the Anglo-Chinese College and many other schools and churches. After six years in Singapore, they returned to America because of breaking health, where for fifteen years William Oldham served churches, founded the chair of Missions at Ohio Wesleyan University, and served as an Assistant Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions. The General Conference of 1904 elected William F. Oldham a Missionary Bishop of Singapore, and for eight years he labored in developing the work he had founded. In 1912, after many insistent calls, he resigned the Bishopric and was elected Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, where he served for four years. In 1916 he was elected a Bishop of the Church, and for twelve years he helped to develop the work that had been started by his friend, William Taylor, in South America. He retired in 1928, and was guest of honor at the fiftieth anniversary of the establishing of the work in Singapore. Returning to America, he took up his residence in Glendale, California.

On September 13, 1875, William Fitzjames Oldham and Marie Augusta Mulligan were united in marriage and walked and worked and loved together for nearly sixty-two years. No children came to share their love, so William and Marie adopted as their own the children of the far corners of the earth.

Cared for in the home of the Reverend and Mrs. Karl E. Anderson, in Glendale, California, former Missionaries in India, the strength of his life ebbed away until on March 27, 1937, he was not, for he had slipped his moorings and was away to be with God. Mrs. Oldham walks alone as she waits for the Reunion day.

William Fitzjames Oldham, citizen of India, Singapore, America, and South America, has established his citizenship in the Kingdom of Heaven, where he has fellowship with the King and with the hosts to whom he had pointed out the Way to the Kingdom.

BISHOP WILLIAM FRASER McDOWELL

William Fraser, son of David A. and Rebecca Fraser McDowell, was born in Millersburg, Ohio, February 4 1858. He was educated at Ohio Wesleyan, A.B., 1879; S.T.B., Boston University School of Theology, 1882; Ph.D., Ohio Wesleyan, 1893. He was one of a class of ten received by the North Ohio Conference in 1882. He served as Pastor of three charges from 1882 to 1890, was Chancellor of the University of Denver for nine years, and Secretary of the Board of Education from 1899 to 1904. He was elected Bishop in 1904 and served twelve years in Chicago and sixteen years in Washington, retiring in 1932, but continuing his work as a Preacher, Lecturer, Writer until the end, returning from a speaking engagement in North Carolina just the day before his Home-going. It is thought that his father was the only layman who ever voted for his son for the Bishopric.

William McDowell was a lecturer in many colleges, a preacher in many countries, a writer of books, a friend of Presidents, President of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, Chairman of the Washington Office of the Federal Council of Churches. His last great task was as Chairman of the Commission to draw up the plan of Union for the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal South, and the Methodist Protestant Churches. He lived to see the plan of unification ratified by two of the three churches.

On September 20, 1882, he was united in marriage with Clotilde Lyon, a Minister's daughter. An only daughter, Olive, slipped away in her young womanhood. William and Clotilde walked together for more than forty-eight years, when Clotilde went Home on December 27, 1930, and William was left to walk alone, but his eyes were constantly fixed upon the day when they would be together again.

Bishop McDowell's last work was in the interest of the Union of Methodism. He preached in Morgantown, North Carolina, on Sunday, April 25, returned to his home in Washington, "with his Books," on Monday, April 26, and he was not, for God took him.

Funeral services were held in Foundry Church, Washington, on April 28, and in Gray's Chapel, Ohio Wesleyan University, on April 29. Burial was in the family lot in Oak Grove Cemetery, Delaware, Ohio.

Editor D. B. Brummitt, of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, relates an incident that reveals the spirit of the man:

"A young preacher had been urging some matter upon the Bishop, a little too informally, as well as urgently, maybe. And the Bishop said to him, 'Young man, I wonder if you forget to whom you are speaking.'

"But the youth was in dead earnest. 'I do not forget, Bishop,' he said, 'I am one of the youngest and least in this Conference, but I hope you do not forget to whom you are speaking, a Brother in the Ministry of Christ.'

"Instantly the Bishop was on his feet, right hand extended. 'I would not forget that for the world,' he said. 'Forgive me if it seemed that I did.'

"In that moment a life-long friendship was born; a friendship rich beyond most; and the other man, now a great Pastor of a great church, mourns Bishop McDowell today as a son might mourn."

In 1882, nine men were received on trial in the North Ohio Conference and one man, who could not reach the North Ohio, was received in the Central Ohio, transferred at once to the North Ohio and appointed to a charge. Five of these men died prior to 1932, with a combined Conference Membership of 158 years. In 1936, Charles M. Gay, Munroe J. Keyes, Charles Gallimore, W. C. Endley and W. F. McDowell finished fifty-four years together in the North Ohio and North-East Ohio Conferences. And now William Fraser McDowell has gone Home, and his four co-workers are waiting for the final reunion of "The Class of Eighty-two."

BISHOP LAURESS JOHN BIRNEY

Lauress John, son of Nelson and Harriett Haverfield Birney, was born in Dennison, Ohio, September 11, 1871. He was educated in Scio College, A.B., 1895, and Boston University School of Theology, S.T.B., 1899. He was given the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Scio, Wesleyan and Yale, and LL.D., by Chattanooga. On September 8, 1895, he was united in marriage with Laura Close of Quaker City, Ohio, who, with one daughter, Dorothy Gene, survives to carry out the plans and ideals of their lives.

He united with the New England Conference in 1900, and served pastorates in Massachusetts until 1911, when he was called to be the Dean of Boston University School of Theology, where he touched the lives of many young men preparing for the Ministry. He was also a Trustee of Boston University.

At the General Conference held in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1920, Lauress John Birney was elected a Bishop on the first ballot. He was appointed to Shanghai, China, and entered wholeheartedly into his work. A deep-seated pulmonary trouble caused frequent interruptions in his work and finally led to his retirement in 1932, twelve years before his regular time of retirement.

He returned to America, broken in health, and took up his residence in Pasadena, California, hoping that he might regain his health and take up a part of the work he wanted to do. But this was not to be and the shadows gathered closer about him until on May 10, 1937, the Day dawned and the shadows fled away and Lauress Birney was at home with God.

Preacher, Teacher, Missionary, Church Statesman, he rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF PREACHERS

The following is a list of the Preachers whose present relation to the church is recorded in this volume. . . . The figures before the names are the years in which the men were received on Trial. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. . . . The asterisk (*) indicates that the name will not appear in The General Minutes next year, the men having been removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. . . . Black-face type indicates that the Preacher is retired or supernumerary. . . . The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. . . . The editor of The General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him at The Methodist Book Concern, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.
